

KOSO RAYS

ARMANDO MANUEL RATUNDO

SOKAISI.CO

This system is meant for those that want to escape the mental and spiritual slavery enforced on humans by the controllers of this planet.

None of the Koso Rays have anything in common nor are associated with anything used previously on Earth.

All these energies have no connection with any previous existing human knowledge. Koso Rays started a major spiritual revolution on Earth.

Koso Rays ® is freely offered for spiritual purposes but also can be successfully used for healing purposes as long as our energetic, spiritual and physical bodies are strongly interconnected, but it is not meant to replace any medical treatment.

Sokaisi ® is a spiritual system consisting of initiations meant for personal and spiritual development. The initiations work on DIY basis absolutely free of any master or any charging, unless specified here. Anyone claiming any of these initiations, charging or pretending to facilitate these initiations will be in violation of founder purpose, and subject to definitive withdrawal of any Sokaisi ® initiation.

Koso Rays is a spiritual system from the infinity I originally came from.

This system has nothing to do with any healing or spiritual system known on Earth until now. It is far more powerful and will help raise the planet's spiritual level. I followed this need when I decided to share these energies on Earth.

People like me may feel sometimes that they don't belong here or that everything seems to be strange here, even well known places or people. This is because we were originally coming from Infinite Love and each one of us are forced to live here in this matrix created and controlled by Darkness. It is perfectly true that many humans are enjoying this, directly correlated with their lack of Spirit and the fact that they are feeding Darkness purposes, being agents of darkness. They are living as bio-mechanical machines, under total control of Darkness. Evidently addressing to those individuals is a waste of time.

The Earth is passing through major changes that will affect every one of us. It's time for us to use and implement our important true knowledge and true energies. The Darkness lost its rights and the dark forces that kept mankind in slavery and obscurity for thousands years lost the control. The World will see their last desperate efforts. This will lead to a major change of forces and to a restoration of spiritual balance.

Many of you have a spiritual path and some of you might be aware of this. Others will find it soon and those energies will help all of us to find who we really are. Matrix controllers imposed a draconic system of a false reality in order to block your spiritual awareness. The Koso Rays attunements are a strong tool for your awakening. You may encounter unusual feelings or images during the process, which are hyper-dimensional experiences correlated with your hyper-dimensional being that's been awakening. You will transform. These attunements will wake you up to what you really are and will provide the opportunity to move beyond. Koso Rays regards the future of the planet Earth and human spirit, and the transformations about to occur at these crucial times.

Koso Rays comes from the True Creation but human mind is unable yet to comprehend this dimension. This concept was deliberately hidden from humans because we are forced to live in a prison which is the physical universe. My name is Kosatoiso and I came from The Infinite! On Earth I am Kosatoiso's extension and this is the reason I received the energies. My will is to share it with this world and I was entitled to do that regarding the future of this Planet Earth.

I have mentioned that a spiritual background is needed for Koso Rays attunements because of the high vibration of the Rays and obviously the spiritual nature of them. I also mentioned that not everyone could receive these attunements because is purely a matter of compatibility. What I didn't know at that time is that my systems are meant for a certain people that will surely reach it! Obviously anyone's invited. Together we will free this planet from slavery and abuse.

Keep in mind that Planet Earth is full of evil people that hide their true intentions behind nice words. Many of them are nothing but biological robots controlled by Darkness. In most cases they had a dark consciousness that is replacing the original consciousness that was absorbed into Darkness at the starting of their process of serving Darkness. These people choices will primarily oppose yours, because they are controlled by dark entities that they cannot comprehend and they aren't aware of. They are nothing but slaves in machinations that they are totally unable to understand, a programming they accepted and make them strongly refusing to believe any Truth. They are Darkness perfect minions, completely blinded and completely under control, a nightmare extended at planetary scale.

Here is a technique that will let you discover who is hiding behind nice words or images. Simply just open time and space, dimensions, protections, images, projections, energies, blockages, shields or any obstacles to the True Heart of someone and look in the person's True Heart (some experienced ones place an image of light or other images in front of their heart to fool anyone that can see them, but you can easily bypass this image too) or use Koso Silver Ray to reach the True

Heart. If you don't "see" yet with your 3rd eye, project yourself to the subject's True Heart. When you find the True Heart filled with darkness, something narrow like a dark abyss in the lower side you must be sure about that person is totally related to darkness. The most devoted to darkness sometimes have the upper side of True Heart blocked with a dense energy (that correspond to dark initiations - basically Darkness pattern of action is blocking the access to any Light energies), because Light energies come on our structures from the upper side. Those people hate everything that comes from Light and no matter what appearance they might have it is better avoid them because sooner or later their hatred will be targeting you. Darkness minions work by default against any manifestation of Love or Infinite. Usually they think that no one can see their true intentions, craftily hidden by words or false smiles. You'll find many types of people, but the ones that carry Light in their hearts you might be interested on. It could be only on the upper side of the True Heart corresponding of their evolution, spiritual efforts or initiations, but true Initiates should carry a light like a Sun that will be their True Heart. A very useful exercise is to go to search your master's True Heart, politicians, celebrities, friends, family or any persons that you put your trust in, and see whether they are Light or Dark True Hearts and you will find out the difference.

The only need for the student in order to receive Koso Rays is their willingness and understanding how these energies work and that they can be used on anything. The settling down of the energies or the accommodation of the human body to new vibrations that you heard before is less important nowadays for those that reach these energies. Yes, energetic status has changed a lot, lately. There is no prerequisite necessary - only your spiritual openness will make the difference.

Humans often proved to be narrow-minded and seem even to enjoy brainwashing. This is the main reason they enjoy TV shows and politics! Did you ever ask yourselves why the broad development of the media and film industry or who owns all those companies? Or who owns gigantic media companies and what could be their role? Why tons of money are involved in this area? Do you know that in every home you can find now a TV set? They want your Mind to be occupied all the time with every imaginable crap they invented just to keep you away from your real powers. A perfect slave that thinks that choses for himself. A slave that receives orders and instructions through channels that he is following obediently, and that can't even imagine life without. I told you that some really liked to be brainwashing and programming. Now it is time to work with that Mind of yours.

Koso Rays initiates will transform themselves and will facilitate the presence of these energies on Earth. This planet has evolved even though anyone can say that it is not very visible or noticeable, and the process continues further. All of us will raise the spiritual level of the planet by just feeding Earth with these long awaited energies. And even a total disaster that could lead this civilisation to total failure as Lemuria or Atlantis could be avoided, making evil inoperative through these vibrations and the new energies that will come through. Obviously Koso Rays are a fresh start and there are a lot powerful energies that follows.

Now coming to the most interesting part. In True Creation evidently there are no symbols or religion, only Infinite Love and an existence through Infinite Love and Infinite Creator. Symbols can be easily programmed and are used to represent various concepts in our human Mind, but mainly as representing some groups and to give participants the sensation of confidence in the organisation. This world is full of symbols, keeping human Mind working in patterns. Look for example at the Christian cross. How can you imagine that we'll meet another civilisation and explain them that crucification (a milestone of mainstream religion) is the symbol of Love? Did you ever suspect that many religions are brainwashing tools fabricated as an alienation of spirit and the purpose is to keep you in slavery? Besides the fact that opposing different conceptual brainwashed fanatics leading to the easy application of the principle "divide and conquer". Controllers achieves this way their sinister control plans of this planet and humankind. Oh, you might be a humanist as well. Did you think that a politician, a TV star or maybe a city mayor would properly represent you in contact with an advanced civilisation? Because you seem to credit these people unconditionally and that you praise them to tell you what to do in life. Not to be surprised that they are the result of the same group of malevolent controller entities.

Time to change this. Koso Rays are the next stage of evolution for humans - the rediscovery of human Mind long ago set into slavery by the controllers. Koso Rays function just mentally — just think and they are set in motion. You might need first to debunk yourself from all the harmful concepts that you have been taught until now. These are just meant to make you a robot integrated in a society of slaves that love the herd thinking. Admit to yourself, you were only taught to think in patterns from the very beginning of yours and you are now considering yourself a free human being. What a charade!

Just to think about Koso Rays to set them in motion. One thought about Koso Rays make them work and this is the reason that I remind you about your wishes – they do come true! And that's because Koso Rays could follow your inner thoughts. Your Mind will cleanse itself and might follow at a certain point, but requires some training. See how easy you can be to achieve something? But you was taught to put your trust in some organic robots brainwashed by a system for that they would die to, because they are programmed to do so and you was also enrolled to do exactly the same. And the main objective is to perpetrate this draconic system of alienation! This could be your fate resumed in a few words. Until now. Your Mind is dangerous for them if it will be operated by the Truth, and will be a bliss for you and humans that won't abandon ourselves to Darkness – be aware of this!

Anyway you will be lead progressively to changes in many areas of your life and it will be better if your efforts will be centred on this. The old patterns and energies will fade away or simply will be replaced and even habits you try to get rid of from long ago will fade away. These attunements will lead you to a new being, free from many harmful effects of so-called civilisation, religion or politics, this greedy society of programmed bio-machines.

Koso Rays involves 9 Rays that you could do in separate attunements or you could do it all in a row. Each Ray has a main purpose that is specified. This does not exclude any other uses and only you will conclude practically what those will be. Basically they works best for what is specified, but you are invited to experiment. Because of the non-restrictive character could be lead to work on any areas you ,ight need. Used altogether in a whole pack could save precious time for you and leads to better results.

Koso Rays attunements are not performed by any human. The system as is presented here, works infinitely in all dimensions. These initiations will accompany you on all further infinite manifestations of yours.

Anyone that wishes to be attuned just has to ask it on my behalf to be attuned and the attunement will proceed immediately. Based on my will and my manifestation in infinity, anyone asking the Koso Rays attunements on my behalf will receive them immediately, no matter when you will ask for it, now or ever, but of course this is taking only into account of the person. You have total control over the attunements; never being dependent on anyone or a scheduling and no one should or could charge you for what I offer freely for anyone!

The installation, or the attunement part is simple and could be done with or without a meditation.

The meditation procedure is described here. Sit comfortably upright with a vertical spine position focusing on the breath, making the inhaling and exhaling equal until it works automatically. Then slow down the breathing process and focus your mind on an image of something peaceful like a flower or anything else that would not disturb the spirit (some will find it also efficient to focus on a candle; the image should be 3D also). Contemplate this flower trying to see all the details of it while the breathing process runs in the background. Your mind should be focused only on this image, a process that will gradually eliminate any residual thoughts. After completing this level you should leave the image and focus your mind only on the void! This is the most important part of the meditation process and even now there could appear sporadic fragments of thoughts. It seems that your monkey Mind enjoys a lot of things that you are not aware of, until you will introduce discipline. The focusing part should go further until the void becomes absolute. This is the part, which requires a severe mental discipline and that is the real beauty of this meditation.

In a meditative state you could use for attunement an affirmation like this: "I am asking to be initiated in Koso Rays and I call now upon me the Koso Rays initiation from Armand until the process will be completed".

The installation process could be completed with all Koso Rays in a row or could be taken one by one.

Using the Koso Rays is extremely simple. Just create or project any Ray that you might need on specific purpose that you have, to facilitate the job done. For example, you can create or send Blue Ray to the cells in order to heal and balance or to simply charge them with Blue Ray until this be achieved. Or you could create or send Green Ray to balance and rejuvenate the cells until the job is completed.

You might create Koso Rays to a subject or a purpose, as needed to be realised or accomplished, until the job is done!

It is very important to eliminate the causes that provoked any imbalance. In most cases could be malefic entities or energies but their flourishing is due to a dark state of mind or destructive thought patterns of the subject, which in this state of mind just get in resonance with that phenomenon or manifestation. How do you think that someone like this will ever heal? You may heard of that diseases always have spiritual causes. Obviously a healthy status is synonymous with a consciousness of Light or Infinite Love! A low spiritual state or a state of mind permanently focused on low vibration subjects will keep the subject connected to Darkness and spread those low vibrations eventually to the entire system, which will become sooner or later a standard for that system. This will progressively lead to a turnover of the system that will become a compliant environment for disease. See how easy the Mind can alter the Spirit and the body? The controllers of this physical plane know very well this mechanism and use it plenty against you over thousand years. Now if you tell me that is a treatment that can heal those affected people, what would that be? Sending healthy energy to the affected organ? I might not think so! All this energy healing practice is another scam of the controllers, not to mention that mainly uses False Light as Reiki which is so less efficient that isn't worth of mentioning. Is no surprise that Reiki failed lamentably under the power of some “masters” that totally control and dogmatized the system. Reiki follows the same pyramidal scheme as almost everything imposed by the Controllers. Nothing new. Maybe Reiki was the initial platform for many of you, but will eventually lead you to another dogmas and useful practice. It is time to take further steps. Real steps.

The environment on this Planet is not very friendly for True Spirit and Infinite Love as we are surrounded here by a lot of dark entities, minds and energies. Our energy fields act like an astronaut suit protecting us from the environment as the immune system protects our physical body from various threats. As long as the entire system frequency is low, especially for a prolonged time, the energy fields will be weak and in some areas could be weakened enough to be vulnerable to various external aggressions, that in this case will be in resonance with. This make a breach in the system that would sooner or later become vulnerable to disease - spiritual, mental, energetic and physical! This is the order of affectation. Now please tell me how can a person affected down through the physical level could be healed? The only healing is that done by themselves, if they are aware to make a change. And the means are already accessible.

Organs could be affected by energies or entities (which could be due to an extremely aggressive environment or could be manipulated toward the subject). Prolonged exposure to aggressive factors causes the energetic matrix to be affected which can cause damage at the programming level and obviously induce malfunction on the physical. That could lead soon to a major damage at the cellular and tissue levels because nothing can live in the absence of fundamental life energy called Vital Force. By the way, this is highly seeking by the controllers and those minions. The irony is that they also couldn't survive on the absence of positive energies but they can't just receive it by themselves due to their adhesion to Darkness and the correspondent blockages of any means that they can receive any positive energies. Instead doing this, they will harvest it from those who have it, people like you, completely unaware of that.

Here is the level where healers regularly try to heal, but they are healing only the effects, and not the true causes. If the stage of that disease is not quite advanced the healer could partially succeed. If the patients will continue the habits that caused the disease, sooner or later the disease will reappear, maybe in other place or other form. The disease is a state of fact that a person was keeping a destructive state of mind, full of hatred, serving Darkness purposes and the absolute consequence of refusal of Infinite Love! Are you sure that you want to heal a such person?

Using Koso Rays should concern first your thirst of experimentation because there are really no limits. The only limitations could be imposed by the users. Always remember that these are energies out of this Matrix, right from The Infinite and this is their range of action. They could be used individually or at once just sending them all for the purpose. In that case the frequencies needed for your purpose will work, but the main advantage is that you will avoid losing time searching for the right Ray for that specific purpose.

In the same manner please send Koso Rays to Planet Earth from micro to macro level to heal it and to increase its spiritual frequency. You can use the same technique on the entire Solar System, or whatever scale you want.

Traveling with the Silver Ray should be done just projecting the Silver Ray from you to the subject, back or further in time or anywhere you want. That will open a corridor from you to the subject, without any interference and you'll be wherever you want. In that way you can also find who you really are. Just send Silver Ray to the real you in order to establish the contact, then travel along the Ray and discover yourself.

All these energies will take you far beyond what you are capable of seeing or predicting. Experiment with each one and just get rid of any limitations imposed upon yourselves; and as much as possible avoid thinking or reacting in patterns. Free yourselves from any old teachings or masters. There is so much false information and so many limitations on this planet enough to convince many of you that you can barely do anything. The Controllers placed limits on everything just to block you from seeing or using your true Spirit, and realise that everything is truly within your power. Because you indeed have the power to change and that fears them most! Your awakening is equal to their perishing so expect some resistance until they won't be able to operate here no more.

Analogies or comparisons of Koso Rays to other energies are out of subject. It is absurd to compare Koso Rays to anything known before, because of their totally different nature. Is a matter of time until they will debug you and release the darkness patterns or blockages. Until then please be patient, use Koso Rays frequently on yourself, and most important - debunk your mind of everything that isn't Infinite or Infinite Love.
