Sokaisi System ® is freely offered for spiritual purposes but also can be successfully used for healing purposes as long as our energetic, spiritual and physical bodies are strongly interconnected, but it is not meant to replace any medical treatment.

Sokaisi ® is a spiritual system consisting of initiations meant for personal and spiritual development. The initiations work on DIY basis absolutely free of any master or any charging, unless specified here. Anyone claiming any of these initiations, charging or pretending to facilitate these initiations will be in violation of founder purpose, and subject to definitive withdrawal of any Sokaisi ® initiation.

My inquisitiveness didn't rest after receiving the Koso Rays. I didn't know what to expect at that certain time, but transformations started. Amazed by their power I searched more energies that can help a human being to get rid of what poisons our lives and minds, and gain more knowledge of how to improve every aspect of life. The only problem seemed to be the imposed 3D limits, but I felt that somehow with the proper knowledge and proper energies we could overcome these limitations. I kept telling myself that a real seeker should be continuously improving. I received a lot of energies from which I compiled some of the most important ones that today comprise the Sokaisi System. As opposed to Koso Rays and Kofu, which existed before I received them, this Sokaisi System is a compilation - I gathered the most important and transformational energies under this name. With this system I wish to allow my students to learn and experiment with much stronger and diverse energies that would transform them into real spiritual beings even in an unfriendly environment like this, and eventually overcome the poor spiritual quality of Planet Earth.

All these energies are absolutely brand new here on Earth and obviously have nothing in common with any existing spiritual knowledge from Earth, but you have already learned that from the Koso Rays. They are absolutely amazing from the very simple reason that they were not created for humans and until the recent raising of Earth's frequency were unable to reach this dimension. It is absolutely true that they come from The Infinite.

Along with Koso Rays and Kofu, these energies originated in another dimension where I manifest an infinite existence. My name there is Kosatoiso and I am speaking here, now. Many who want to know facts about me and about the providing of these energies must know that I am the one who brings these energies here, because I am the same one who keeps them there.

Even if I always recommend to use Higher Guidance in finding out anything that can concern you, it seems there are people who still prefer to believe words. Verify me! Verify is the key word! On this planet the evil ones hide their true intentions behind deceiving words. One of the tougher lessons in my spiritual life was searching for masters that can lead me to the Truth. It seems that very few people are aware of Truth. Of course I learn it in a painful way.

Many of you might ask yourself what is wrong with all this madness and negativity of today's world. In fact, all of us choose to be here on these times, many of us with important roles. This planet Earth is one of the toughest environments of the entire Universe, parasitised by entities that drain every energy for their own perpetration. The most important lesson of all is to master negativity and to raise this environment frequency. For that you need courage, knowledge and amongst many others, but not last, the right energies.

Things are going deeper over the last years. The World is divided in two camps by the entities that control this planet and harvest the energies of its inhabitants. You never thought about this scenery, but that doesn't mean that isn't already took place for centuries. And deliberately you was indoctrinated to reject and mock anything that might lead you to this knowledge. There are literally armies of teachers, priests, so called scientists or any members of society ready to ridicule you and even punish on a large scale if you dare to think about this. And you might ask what can you discover? That we live in a dream-like fake reality where our soul and energies are constantly drained. Our attention is deliberately diverted to nonsenses that comprise our lives in order to distract us from any true spirit. They designed a society of control built on pyramidal scheme as they are organised. All human activities are centred around consuming, destruction and pain, because those entities are originated from the opposition of Infinite and True Spirit that Archons imposed to everything. The harvesters are dark malefic entities, and their favourite energies are an easy guess. We are the production line, forced labour of manufacturing low energies they are so desperately in need. This explains why evil seems to spread here easy on all planes.

All archonic things will break down in front of new energies that will fill this planet. None could avoid this and no one will remain unaffected, and this will break down the slavery imposed by the controllers of planet Earth!

We are named initiates. Do not expect to be many, in fact we are just a few, but quality is above quantity. We are a fraction of the entire world's population. Only a few managed to get rid of the archon control.

All the new energies that I brought to this dimension will help this planet and the new vibrations will wake up more of us. Sokaisi System will allow those who find the courage to cross borders, to see beyond and increase their possibilities. Sokaisi System attunements will allow new energies to work within you and this system is a perfect instrument to gain more knowledge, explore and expand your consciousness and help others break this slavery.

These energies require separate attunements that will be performed by my manifestation in infinity.

1. SOKAISI - Elixir of Life attunement (a beautiful sparkling revitalising energy);
2. SOKI - Universe's Harmony attunement (permanently connects you to Universal harmony);
3. MAARBKA - Essence of Life energy attunement (some energy that humans prove to have in a very small amount);
4. KOOA - Spring of Youth attunement (revitalises and makes your body youthful and strong);

5. KOSOO - Universe Central Sun attunement (connection with Central Sun energies);
6. KOKAKOTA – RNA/DNA transformational energy attunement - 3 waves (is a very strong attunement and therefore some headaches may appear and could last for up to a half of an hour. Due to some changes in your system, some dizziness might occur at the same time, but it won't last long. Please wait until all 3 waves are installed);
7. KOVA – Inter-dimensional energies and information attunement (assuring a better communication through higher dimensions and allows instant access to desired information that comes intuitively);
8. KAVA – Intra-cellular energy attunement (brings Light energy inside every cell to feed them);
9. KOTA – Cellular regeneration energy attunement (helps regeneration and revitalisation of cells);
10. KOOKU – Brain holographic attunement (this will progressive lead brain to full holographic capacity);
11. KOTAKOSA – Multi-dimensional attunement (helps you to see and hear clearer through all dimensions and allows the spiritual truth to manifest through);
12. KOKOKO – Energy of the Immortals attunement - 3 waves (very intense attunement - please wait until you will be hit by all the 3 waves. Is a very strong energy that can cause some light physical symptoms that won't last long);

I appended later 2 energies that are missed most on this Planet hoping you all will use it anytime needed or as a basis of your activity. Recommendations are to use them plenty from self-development to any areas!

13. KADSI – The Essence of Love (sparkling shining energy);

14. KOOSI – Pure Love

Anyone asking for the Sokaisi System attunements on my behalf will receive them immediately performed by my manifestation in infinity. No matter when you will ask for it, now or whenever you want, of course will take into account only for those asking for it.

The installing process requires better a state of meditation and a mental affirmation that should be like this: "I am asking to be attuned in [...] attunement and I call now upon me the attunement from Armand until the process will be completed" The attunement will proceed and will last usually for about half hour. The installation will last forever, in every form you will further manifest in existence.

After the attunement the energies will work within the subject but don't expect them to perform miracles without your intention. Please allow some time to get used to those energies and then work them according to your developmental needs. Just link yourself by opening portals to these new energies in specific areas of your bodies, cells, DNA, fields, energetic or spiritual particles and allow them to work as you intend. Or simply send these energies to any areas you need, until complete realisation.

You could also ask these energies to concentrate continuously on a desired subject to do the transformation you need, until the job is done.

These energies have a common characteristic: they are transformational, but first you have to put them in motion. Using them you will be led to different choices in your lives, and wherever they would be be sure they would be more appropriate to spiritual health.

If you feel like you would need more, please check next initiation:
